The Norwegian-Lutheran, Iowa farm girl storyteller who weaves word pictures of ordinary people and places into rich tapestries that warm and comfort all who hear them. Her stories and storytelling speak to all of us, city or country, about what really matters in our day to day lives.

JoAnn Lower, Speaker

The annual Ag Breakfast is funded by area businesses that purchase tickets or make product donations. Tickets are available in books of eight for a cost of $75 for Chamber members and $85 for non-members. In addition to the tickets, product sponsors and ticket sponsors will receive promotional name mentions in the program. Sponsors may also purchase youth tickets which enable 4-H, FFA, and NIACC ag program students to attend the breakfast. Student tickets are just $5 each. Seating is limited, so reservations are required by March 12, 2010.

The Grand Door Prize of a laptop computer will be sponsored by Fox Auction Company and Gold Country Seed. Other program highlights will include recognition for area Century Farms and family generations involved in farming.

Sponsored by:

Skat Farm Financial
Making $ense out of Crop Insurance

Land O'Lakes Purina Feed LLC
