Chamber 104th Annual Meeting – The Show Must Go On!

MASON CITY, IA — The Chamber of Commerce will hold its 104th Annual Meeting entitled “The Show Must Go On” from 10:30AM to Noon on Thursday, October 1 at the Cinema West Theater. Tickets are $25.

The Chamber Board of Directors is rolling out the red carpet and encouraging attendees to dress up in black tie attire. The Chamber has reserved all 10 auditoriums for the premiere of the Annual Meeting video, which will allow ample space for attendees to maintain physical distance, while safely enjoying the show. Masks are encouraged.

Board Chairman Tyler Kerr from REG – Mason City, LLC will comment on the Chamber’s accomplishments and current initiatives, and recipients of the Business of the Year, Boss of the Year, and other annual awards will be announced. Outgoing board members Rodney Huber from Huber Supply, Scott Smith from Diamond Jo Casino, and Jamie Nelson from Coloff Media will be recognized for their service.

The Chamber is actively engaged in promoting progressive community and economic development to benefit Chamber members and the North Iowa region. It remains an independent organization operated by a small group of paid staff and hundreds of volunteers. The Chamber is not supported by tax dollars and has no power to impose taxes or other measures that would directly increase the cost of living for the citizens of our community. The Chamber is simply a private business with a vested interest in activities to grow the local economy, improve the business climate, and make the community a better place to live and work.

For more information or to register for the annual meeting, go to the Chamber website at www.masoncityia.com or call 641.423.5724.
